CITY NOTES.
John J. Carbine has been appointed postmaster at Wyandott to succeed George T. Rose.
Thomas W. Keene, the tragedian, will present Richard III at the Academy of Music this evening.
The Delaware and Hudson tracks above Carbondale were opened for the 2000th time yesterday afternoon.
E. E. Robinson appeared before the estimate committee last evening seeking an appropriation for opening Oxford street.
Carl A. Havin presented "The Silver King" before good sized and well pleased audience at the Academy of Music last evening.
Commissioners C. B. Gardner and M. F. Sande are working on their report in the Carbondale contested election case. It will be presented to court next week.
A letter signed "H. H. H." is in opposition to the bridge improvements, will be printed if the writer will attach his full name to the communication. All letters to THE TRIBUNE must be signed by the writer, for publication.
The ladies' Auxiliary of the Railroad Department of the Young Men's Christian Association will give an entertainment and chorale tonight in Association hall 55 Lackawanna avenue. An excellent programme has been provided.
To Mayor Connell.
By sending you my wishes
I am sure you will be
You will have our best respect, sir,
And that's all we have to say.

MAKING IT A TEST CASE.
Suit of Henry Collins Against Carbondale Traction Co. Advanced on List.
Attorney I. H. Burns has succeeded in getting the trespass case of Henry Collins, against the Carbondale Traction company advanced on the trial list for the March term.
When the Carbondale Traction company built its road it altered the grade of several of the streets of Carbondale and in consequence many of the property owners sued for damages.
The cases were arbitrated and damages aggregating many thousands of dollars were awarded against the company. Appeals were taken and Mr. Burns has had the Collins case advanced on the trial list to have the law points involved passed upon.
The decision in the Collins case will rule all the others and a settlement of them may then be arrived without trials.
To Chief Simpson.
If a burglar is burgling should tackle your wife,
Or trying to intrude in your nose,
Now the new law police are coming, we trust
You'll soon bring Mr. Burglar to book.

THE TIMES CENSURED

Its Charges Against E. F. Kingsbury Unwarranted, Premature and Uncharitable.
RECEIPTS OF ESCAPE FROM LIBBY
The Ladies' Committee of the Entertainment Turns Over $350 to the Board of Associated Charities. Board Returns Thanks to All Who Assisted in the Entertainment—Work Done by the Board.

The board of associated charities met last night in the committee room at the Albright Hotel. The attendance was as follows: E. H. Ripple, president; Rev. Rogers Israel, secretary; W. T. Smith, treasurer; Thomas J. Moore, Luther Keller, John Gibbons, T. J. Kelly, Gaylord Thomas, John H. Fellows and E. J. Lyott.

Much time was consumed in the discussion of the accusations published by the Scranton Times regarding the handling of the funds of the "Escape from Libby" entertainment by E. F. Kingsbury. The members of the board were unanimous in their condemnations of the action of the Times and stamped the publication of the story as unwarranted, premature and uncharitable.

The ladies' committee of the Libby entertainment during the meeting presented its report, and in connection therewith and in view of the Times' charges against Kingsbury, the board passed the following resolutions without a dissenting vote:

Resolved, that the members of this board be tendered the ladies' committee having in charge the arrangements connected with "The Escape from Libby" entertainment and for all others who in any way assisted in making the entertainment such a marked financial success. The board would also ask that public judgment be passed on the propriety of the publication of the following resolutions without a dissenting vote:

IN GREAT DEMAND.
The Handsome Proof Etchings Attract Many Pleased Spectators.

Many readers of the announcement in yesterday's TRIBUNE concerning the handsome proof etchings on exhibition at THE TRIBUNE business office called in acknowledgment of the invitation to inspect these art treasures. It was the general belief that the etchings were something extraordinary desirable and expressions of appreciation were numerous.

The invitation is yet open. The etchings are of various sizes. There are fifty-six subjects in all, and the workmanship is masterly in every detail. Any additional information will cheerfully be given upon inquiry, by mail or in person.

SKY SCRAPPING BUILDINGS.

John A. Mears, Arthur D. Dean and Alfred Harvey Propose Erecting Office Structure.
Considerable interest is current among real estate dealers and business men as to what disposition will be made of the lot now owned by Dr. L. M. Gates, located on the east side of Washington avenue, south of Spruce street.

It is a well known fact that John A. Mears purchased the property with the intention of erecting a sky scraping office building to cover the entire lot, which extends as far back as Lee court. This move became known to Arthur D. Dean and Alfred Harvey, who immediately anticipated Mr. Mears by obtaining an option on the portion of the lot next to the alley to about half the distance to Washington avenue. These gentlemen own the two stone office structures on Spruce street facing the square. They obtained the option for the reason that if a building was erected and covered the entire Gates lot, its height would shut off the light from the rear offices of their two buildings.

It is now said that the intention of Dean and Harvey is to construct an office building on their option facing Lee court. In such a case they will only build to such a height and in such a manner as not to interfere with the rest of the present properties.

Mr. Dean said to a TRIBUNE reporter that he and Mr. Harvey had the option, but their plans were not sufficiently matured for them to state exactly what would be done.

It was the corner of Spruce street and Washington avenue, adjoining the Dean and Harvey buildings, which John A. Mears recently purchased. If Mr. Mears erects an office building and the other persons interested do likewise on two portions of the Gates property, this city will be able to boast of another and prominent addition to its large number of business buildings.

ESTATES COMMITTEE AT WORK.

Not Much Accomplished at a Very Leisurely Session.
The estimates committee was in session for more than two hours last evening. All the members were present and Mr. W. H. Ripple presided. After laboring through the requests and recommendations of the heads of departments for two hours, the committee decided to have the heads of some of the departments attend the next meeting of the committee.

Last night's work was brief as follows: Item of $900 for detectives' service postponed, salary of assistant city solicitor reduced from $1,000 to $800, the engineer corps was given $400 for instruments, repairing of asphalt reduced $100, ward appropriations fixed the same as last year, salary of clerk increased from $95 to $100, this will be given back, increasing the police force from 34 to 43 patrolmen with an additional desk sergeant.

Victor Lauer and O. P. Miller and Robert Robinson were appointed to confer with Chief Forbes as to the necessity for the increased appropriation asked for. Secretary of the board of health, will be asked to attend the next meeting. The city solicitor will be asked to give an opinion as to the legality of appropriating more than $1,000 per annum for Constable park and the Albright free library management will be asked to explain why increases in appropriations for books and salaries are asked for at this time.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc. together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Best to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract newcomers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully.
Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

IT WAS A DARING DEED

Miss Mary Moran Robbed W. A. Gallagher's Residence in Day Time.
ARRESTED AT WILKES-BARRE
She Had Nearly All of Stolen Articles with Her—Two Watches Pawned in a Shop in This City—They Were Recovered—The Girl Held in $1,000 Bail for Her Appearance at Court—Why She Fell.

Miss Mary Moran, the South Side young lady, was arrested at Wilkes-Barre Monday for having robbed the residence of W. A. Gallagher at 31 Mulberry street last Thursday. She was given a hearing before Alderman Fuller yesterday afternoon. She was asked to give $1,000 bail for her appearance at court, and in default was committed to the county jail to await trial.

The robbery was of the most daring character and shows that Miss Moran is a young woman of unusual daring and not a little shrewdness. She is 19 years of age and has some claims to beauty.

She was never a servant at the Gallagher residence, contrary to many published reports to that effect. Early in December her mother was employed by Mrs. Gallagher to do some scrubbing and cleaning about the house. The daughter accompanied her, and in that way became familiar with the lay of the house. Mrs. Gallagher's niece, a blind girl, is a member of the household, and with her Miss Moran became acquainted.

Last Thursday afternoon Miss Moran decided to visit the Gallagher residence, having devised a plan for disposing of it. She boldly rang the door bell and entering there was no one in the house but the blind girl, confined to her a touching story of poverty that elicited warm-hearted sympathy.

The blind girl is a musician, and after playing and singing at the request of her visitor, she told Miss Moran of her going to Danmore. At that place she showed a few of the articles of jewelry to relatives and said they had been given to her. Where she spent Thursday night is not known, but on Friday she went to Wilkes-Barre and entered a house of questionable character conducted by Alice Peckley.

Sunday Miss Phillips took her new boarder out driving to show her points of interest in and about Wilkes-Barre. A young man from Scranton saw and recognized Miss Moran and that led to her arrest. Mr. Gallagher was informed that the girl was in Wilkes-Barre and called on her. He was directed to go there and plan her under arrest. The greater part of the stolen property she had with her and Officer Roche recovered it. Miss Moran confessed that two of the stolen watches had been pawned in this city, one by herself and the other by a young man named Anthony O'Boyle. These were also recovered.

THE HEARING YESTERDAY.
At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Miss Moran and O'Boyle were arraigned before Alderman Fuller. Mr. Gallagher was convinced that O'Boyle was innocent of any intentional wrong doing and the charge against him was withdrawn. He assured those present that he had pawned the watch in perfect good faith for Miss Moran, believing that it was her property. The young lady was asked to give $1,000 bail for her appearance at court and in default was committed to jail.

Her mother was present at the hearing. She was bowed down with grief and cried continually. Miss Moran was highly engaged to be married to a South Side young man, but her conduct led to the breaking off of the engagement. She was fond of gaiety and admiration and was frequently seen at the public balls of the city.

At one of these balls she met a young man who resides on the West Side. He accompanied her to a dance some time later she attended a ball at Turner hall and after it was over accompanied one of "her gentleman friends" to 16 Lackawanna avenue, where she spent the night.

THE FATE THAT KILLS.
Fairly launched on a vicious career she made repeated visits to that and other places of lower Lackawanna avenue. She cloaked all knowledge of her conduct from her mother and stepfather, but becoming weary of her double life she determined to become a denizen of the half world where folly and unavailing regrets go hand in hand. As a prelude to her entrance on her shady career she committed the robbery to obtain clothing, jewelry and money.

PROPERTY OWNERS TO MEET.
They Say Luzerne Street Grading Assessment Was Not Legally Made.
Luzerne street property owners will hold a meeting at Callahan's hall tomorrow night to take action with regard to the claims of the city against them for grading.
The property owners claim that the grading assessments were not legally made, they being charged according to frontage instead of by benefits.

DELIGHTFUL MORNING MUSICAL.

Given by Mrs. Frances B. Swan at her Clay Avenue Residence.
Mrs. Frances B. Swan, of Clay avenue, gave her friends a delightful and decidedly novel entertainment yesterday at her home. It was a musical matinee and was participated in by several of the most accomplished musicians of this city.

Mrs. Swan was assisted in receiving by Miss Scott, of Philadelphia. Miss Susan Jernyn, Miss Alice Dale, Miss Margaret E. Yardley and Miss Clara Reynolds assisted in the dining room. The programme rendered by Professor Geo. B. Carter, pianist; Mr. Wooler, tenor, and Miss Julia Allen, the talented vocalist, was applauded one in every respect, and it was rendered with that artistic finish which Scrantonians have learned to expect from the musicians.

Those present were: Mrs. E. B. Jernyn, Mrs. E. P. Kingsbury, Mrs. George B. Smith, Mrs. Annie Mattice, Mrs. H. Christ, Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mrs. Alfred Conneli, Mrs. E. H. Ripple, Mrs. James L. MORE TROUBLE FOR THE CITY.

S. A. Comstock, a Linden Street Property Owner Discovers a New Form of Action for Damages.
S. A. Comstock, who owns three frame buildings on the southerly side of Linden street, between Penn and Franklin avenues, asked the court yesterday, through Attorney I. H. Burns, to appoint viewers to ascertain what damages he sustained by reason of changes of the grade of Linden street in front of his property.

Mr. Comstock erected the buildings about twenty years ago, after obtaining the grade of the street in front of them from City Engineer Ansdien. He erected the buildings eighteen inches above the level of the street, and although he has since raised the foundations under each two feet they are now on a level with the street.

He says that after his buildings were erected the street commissioners, without any special authority from council, at different times raised the grade of the street in front of his property. When Linden street was paved about five years ago the grade was established by ordinance. It raised the street above the level of the street one foot. For the damage he sustained by reason of these changes of grade Mr. Comstock wants the city to reimburse him.

This is unlike the many other claims that have been brought against the city for damages by raising the grade. It is a question in the first place if the claim is not barred by the statute of limitations, and secondly if it is possible to recover from the city where grading was done without being authorized by ordinance.

In view of these facts Judge Gunster decided to hear argument in the case before appointing viewers. If Mr. Comstock is successful there are many other property owners who will bring similar actions against the city.

NEW INSURANCE ASSOCIATION.
Organized by a Number of the Progressive Polanders of This City.
Attorney M. A. McGinley applied to the court yesterday for a charter for the Polish Roman Catholic Mutual Life Insurance Association of Scranton. The purpose for which the corporation was formed is to provide a fund from which to pay death benefits. This fund is to be maintained by the collection of dues and assessments from the members. The principal office of the association will be in this city, and it will carry on its business through a supreme and subordinate lodges.

The officers of the association are Jacob Malkoski, president; Kouslany Slowski, vice president; Millislaus Sanyter, secretary; F. J. Dickert, treasurer. The charter is asked for under an act of the legislature approved April 6, 1893.

WARREN IS DELEGATE

Chosen to Represent the Second District at the State Convention.
STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED
They Condemn the Attitude of the Democratic Party with Regard to the Tariff and Hawaiian Affairs. Delegates Who Took Part in the Deliberations of the Convention. Dr. A. J. Kolb Named as Alternate.

At the convention of the Republicans of the Second Legislative District, held in the court house yesterday afternoon, Major Everett Warren was unanimously elected delegate to the Republican State convention, which meets in Harrisburg on Monday, May 23, to nominate a governor and other state officers.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.
After the credentials had been handed in and recorded, Attorney F. W. Flett moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft appropriate resolutions. The chair appointed Mr. Flett, Attorney T. F. Penman and Colonel George Sander. After a short recess the following resolutions were reported and adopted:

We, the Republicans of the Second Legislative District of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party.

We desire to enter a vigorous protest against the action of the Democratic leaders in the house at Washington in the passage of the Wilson bill so destructive to the industries of this section, as well as the whole country at large, the very shadow of which has shut down our factories, closed our mills and mines and seriously crippled all business interests. In this section we believe all are interested alike, and Lackawanna owes it to herself as one of the leading industrial counties of the commonwealth to speak on Tuesday next with no uncertain or wavering tongue her condemnation of the Democratic policy of infamy in Hawaiian affairs, of destruction to the industries, the farm products and the rights of both capital and labor in the United States.

We further desire to place on record our hearty endorsement of the candidacy of Gen. H. Hastings of Danmore for the Republican nomination for governor at the coming state convention, recognizing in him a thoroughly equipped, able and statesman-like representative of the party and the people of this state. We also urge the citizens of Lackawanna county, regardless of party, to rally around the standard of Hon. Thomas A. Grow next Tuesday and show by their votes that they still remain true to the principles of protection to American labor and repudiate all free trade heresies.

THE DELEGATE CHOSEN.
Chairman Millar announced that the next business that would occupy the attention of the convention would be the selection of a delegate to the state convention. Mr. Penman nominated Major Everett Warren for the position. There were no other nominations and Major Warren was unanimously elected.

Dr. A. J. Kolb was chosen for alternate. Attorney A. J. Colborn was also placed in nomination for alternate, but declined. He said he believed in dividing the honors and as the Ninth ward was honored by having one of its citizens chosen as delegate he thought it would be unfair to select the alternate from the same ward. He therefore asked permission to withdraw his name in favor of Dr. Kolb, who has said was an able representative of the young Republicans of the South Side.

The selection of Dr. Kolb completed the work of the convention and it adjourned, having been in session twenty-five minutes.
